UN Boycott Against West Germany

By ALEC COLLETT

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Soviet bloc is boycotting the U.N. committee planning the second Development Decade because West Germany, a major foreign aid contributor, is on it.

The committee is meeting this afternoon to begin planning the 1971-80 program to promote the growth of developing nations. But Yugoslavia was the only European Communist nation planning to attend.

five a year. Wisconsin law authorizes the sterilization of institution inmates if there is unanimous agreement by a surgeon, psychiatrist and institution director that "procreation is inadvisable." The state has not sterilized anybody in the past two years.

The sixth state with a sterilization law is North Carolina. Mrs. Sue L. Casebolt, executive secretary of the State Eugenics Board says: "I can't remember the last time we had a hearing."

Allied military spokesman said the offensive had cost the enemy more than 2,500 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese troops killed so far, most of them by air and artillery bombardment.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported 340 government troops killed and 1,063 wounded since the enemy launched the offensive with artillery attacks.

Allied military spokesman on 150 town and bases Saturday night and Sunday, followed by some ground probes.

At least 90 South Vietnamese civilians were reported killed and nearly 400 wounded, most of them by the enemy mortar and artillery attacks on cities and town across the country.

Although military analysts said Saigon still appeared to be the Communist command's ultimate objective, the fighting spread north today and 28 U.S. Marines were reported killed in two attacks just below the demilitarized zone. They were the first attacks reported along the DMZ since the Communist offensive began.

Northwest of Saigon, troops of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division repulsed a heavy assault on a firebase near the Cambodian border — the second in three days — and killed 78 North Vietnamese soldiers in a 2½-hour battle.

For the second night in succession, the allied commands reported about 50 enemy mortar and artillery attacks Monday night and early Tuesday on cities, towns and military posts. A military spokesman said the attacks appeared to be less intense than those the night before, casualties were fewer and damage was light.

Salon was spared for the second night after being hit twice Sunday at the start of the offensive.

Mr. Foster was commanded for his work on the recent location of Hempstead Industries and his continued efforts on other prospects that have shown interest in the Hope area.

Mr. Foster stated that he would be glad to serve for another year if he can continue to have the cooperation that he has had during the past year and said that he could foresee some further industrial development in Hope if this cooperation continued. Other officers reelected were Fred Ellis, Vice-president and B.N. Holt, Secretary-treasurer.

Another item of business at the meeting was that of making plans to sell some more stock in the Hempstead County Industrial Foundation. Mr. Foster said that funds in the organization treasury have been almost depleted with the location of the Homestead Industries Plant and if the Foundation is to make further progress it will have to have some additional funds.

He further stated that some new businesses have been established in Hope since the last stock was sold and he also felt that some other business men would want to put some more money into the fund at this time.

He appointed Fred Ellis to head a committee to spearhead a drive for these additional funds and Mr. Ellis has asked the following men to assist him in his effort: Robert LaGrone, Tom Ed Hays, Ray Turner, Luther Holloman and James Morrow. Mr. Ellis has called a meeting of his committee for Wednesday February 26th to make some plans for this campaign.

Associate Warden James Park of California's San Quentin prison noted that what the court okayed was free legal advice, which might not apply to most jailhouse lawyer activities.

"Inmate legal advising is an underground operation usually requiring some sort of payoff in canteen privileges, cash pay by relatives or something else in the way of a fee," Park said.

Park said San Quentin inmate lawyers already were producing an average of 4,000 writs a year without bringing any significant relief to their clients.

Warden F. J. Pate of Stateville penitentiary in Illinois said he had previously proceeded on the understanding that a non-lawyer could not practice law in prison.

HOPE (AM) STAR, Printed by Offset Shaw Trial Told Autopsy Not Complete

By BILL CRIDER

Associated Press Writer

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) —

The autopsy on President John F. Kennedy did exactly what it was supposed to do, an Army pathologist testified at Clay Shaw's conspiracy trial today.

"The purpose of the autopsy was to determine the nature of the wounds and the direction of the wounds," said Col. Pierre A. Finck. "We were satisfied with the nature of the wounds, their direction and the cause of death. In my opinion, this autopsy fulfilled its purpose."

Finck, a Swiss-born pathologist, was one of the three co-authors of the autopsy report, much of it still secret. His long cross-examination by Asst. Dist. Atty. Alvin Oser ended this morning after about nine hours on the stand.

Oser sought to discredit the autopsy's findings that Kennedy was shot from behind.

"As of this date, have you gotten any information that would cause you to change your opinion?" asked defense lawyer F. Irvin Dymond.

"No," Finck replied.

Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison claims the President also was hit from in front during an alleged crossfire ambush in Dallas' Dealey Plaza on Nov. 22, 1963.

The Criminal District Court is in its sixth week. Shaw, 55, a retired businessman, is charged with conspiring with Lee Harvey Oswald and others to murder Kennedy.

Finck was definite in stating that all medical evidence showed the President was shot in the back of the neck and in the back of the head—and that it didn't take a microscopic examination to know it.

Officials Don't Like Jailhouse Lawyers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Prison wardens and other state officials took a generally favorable view of a Supreme Court ruling that jailhouse lawyers—amateur inmate attorneys—have a right to hand out free legal advice.

Arlo J. Smith, attorney general of California, said one result might be to load up the courts with "frivolous proceedings decided neither on fact nor law."

Fred T. Wilkinson, director of the Missouri Department of Corrections, commented: "It is quite contradictory that a non-lawyer may practice law inside jails and prisons but non-lawyers cannot practice on the outside."

Warden Sherman Crouse of the Kansas State penitentiary said there was a rule there against the writing of court petitions by jailhouse lawyers for other less literate inmates, explaining:

"The trouble comes when the inmate gets into court and the judge asks him questions about the writ which he can't answer. As for the jailhouse lawyers, while they're still in here themselves so there's a question how much they know about the law."

The Supreme Court ruling came Monday in the case of William Joe Johnson, who complained that Tennessee state prison officials prevented him from preparing appeals for illiterate or poorly educated fellow inmates.

The court said it was important that the poor and unschooled convicts have access to all legal facilities as they fight for their freedom.

Associate Warden James Park of California's San Quentin prison noted that what the court okayed was free legal advice, which might not apply to most jailhouse lawyer activities.

"Inmate legal advising is an underground operation usually requiring some sort of payoff in canteen privileges, cash pay by relatives or something else in the way of a fee," Park said.

Baseball Agreement Reached

NEW YORK (AP) — The baseball dispute between players and owners has been settled, it was officially announced today.

Marvin Miller, executive director of the Major League Baseball Players Association, advised the member players they were free to sign contracts and report to the training camps.

Previously Miller has instructed the members, who include most of the stars and regular players, not to sign contracts until an agreement had been reached on increased pensions and other benefits.

Under the agreement announced by both parties, they will recommend a 3-year agreement to the players and the owners.

The owners agreed to put $5,450,000 annually into the players' pension fund and to lower eligibility from five years playing time to four years.

Under the old agreement, the owners put $4.1 million into the plan in 1967 and 1968.

The players originally had asked for a $6.5 million package but then pared this down to $5.9 million.

Under the new pact, retired benefits at age 50 will be increased from $50 a month to $60 a month for each of the first 10 years of major league service with early retirement permitted at age 45.

If you are a woman, you should have two very special gifts: femininity and intuition. The femininity is basic — you were born with it, and you will have it as long as you live. The intuition, however, must be exercised and cultivated. Its job is to tell you what to do with your femininity.

One of the things it will tell you is that a woman must look her best at all times, especially in her own private domain, the home.

The people at Raley's Style Shoppe know all about feminine intuition. That's why they have chosen such a lovely array of "at home things" this season to offer their customers. Things like pastel peignoir sets with soft, soft nylon tricot lining and sheer overlay; demure little long-sleeved gowns; lace-trimmed bed jackets; and imaginative shortie pajamas and lacy-cover-up sets that can only be described as breath-taking.

If the styles are irresistible, so are the brand names: Ro-Vel of California and Henson Kickernick, for example.

So, if your intuition tells you that you need to make better use of your femininity at home, visit Raley's Style Shoppe and view their lingerie and loungewear — and make the most of both your special gifts!

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

els, Maryland, were united in marriage on Saturday, February 8 at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary of the Washington Baptist Church, Washington, Arkansas.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Eugene Howie of Goreville, Illinois, uncle of the bride. Vows were exchanged before an altar with double seven-branched candelabra holding white cathedral tapers and flanked by baskets of white gladiolus and greenery. In the center was an arch covered with greenery. The family pews were Empire waisted accented with a small bow in front. The sleeves were bell shaped. Their head pieces were flat bows of the same material. They carried white fur muffs.

Little Miss Jenny Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Young of Washington, was flower girl. Her dress of red velvet fell from a gathered yolk. The wide round double collar was of white lace. Master Ronnie Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Webb of Ozark, served as ring bearer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white peau de soie, of Vogue special design. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a straight neckline edged with a draped fold and long fitted sleeves ending with a point over the hands. The A-line skirt fell into a graceful tapered train. The back was accented by a bow at the V-shaped neckline. A sweeping cathedral train of lace was attached under the bow. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion fell from a peau de soie flat bow head piece. She carried a cascade centered with an orchid.

Miss Mary Ellen Williams of Arkadelphia served as maid of honor. Miss Jeanne Barentine and Miss Lila Thaxton of Arkadelphia were bridesmaids. The bride's table was covered with a white linen Madeline cut-work cloth. It was centered with an arrangement of white miniature mums and carnations in a silver vase flanked by white candles in silver candelabra. Mrs. Larry Selvige of Hot Springs, Mrs. Martin Bateman of Pine Bluff, Mrs. Joe Bingham, Mrs. David Hallisey, Misses Brenda and Carlene Hughes, all Arkadelphia, served the wedding cake and fruit punch. Assisting was Mrs. Billy Dougan, Miss Carole Ann Scott of Little Rock presided at the bride's book. Rice bags were dispensed by Little Miss Denise Dougan. Among the out of town guests were Mrs. J.R. Carter of Gurdon, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Raines of Bethesda, Maryland, sister of the groom.

For travel the bride wore a two piece red suit and pinned the orchid to her wedding bouquet at her shoulder. The couple will make their home in Little Rock.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. H.K. McHarg III of St. Michaels, Maryland gave the rehearsal dinner for the Carter-McHarg wedding party on Friday night February 7 at the "Heritage House," Mrs. R.L. Cosnell acted as hostess.

On the table was a lovely bowl of white carnations and mums, with white taper candles placed along the center with flowers at the base of each.

A corsage was presented the bride-elect, and the couple presented gifts to their attendants for the wedding.

Places were laid for 22 guests.

Pants Etiquette

Even the most fashion-conscious girl can be confused about pants etiquette these days. The whole matter boils down to a subtle distinction between just slacks or shorts worn with any kind of tops or footwear and the carefully assembled pants costumes designed to be worn in town with exactly the right accessories. The former does not belong on city streets, but still may not be right for matinees, museums and art galleries, and most restaurants. Culottes and culotte dresses which look like skirts are generally acceptable.

Takes Dig at Missing Catcher

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
Atlanta's Paul Richards, caught up in the heat of major league baseball's spring training player boycott, has taken a stab at his missing catcher.

But it's those Atlanta pitchers, present and accounted for in the Braves' West Palm Beach, Fla., camp who are beginning to bother Los Angeles' Walter O'Malley.

There still were few name players on hand for Monday's practice sessions in the spring camps before negotiators for the players and owners struggled to a standoff in marathon pension negotiations at New York. But there was no boycott on words—and one heated exchange involved Richards, the Braves' general manager, and unsigned catcher Joe Torre.

Richards said he didn't care if Torre "holds out until Thanksgiving."

"Now more than he has contributed the last two years, it wouldn't hurt us if he did," Richards added.

Torre, at home in New York, where he was to attend at meeting of club player representatives today, replied to the blast by suggesting that Richards trade him. Richards reportedly has been trying to do just that all winter.

Dodgers' owner O'Malley referred to the Braves' pitchers—including front-liners Pat Jarvis, Phil Niekro, Ken Johnson and Ron Reed—who have ignored the boycott while expressing his concern over the absence of his club's top hurlers at Vero Beach, Fla.

"We were in the midst of the damndest wrangle you ever saw when we were interrupted by phone to tell us we had reached a settlement," Miller said. Catherin would not comment on the news story. The owners' negotiator said Miller's statement that there had been progress in the talks but that problems still existed "pretty much sums it up."

"There was some positive progress," Catherin said. Neither he nor Miller would elaborate.

The split between the players and owners began to develop last fall and gradually increased in intensity.

The owners had offered originally to increase their annual contributions to the player pension fund from $4.1 million to $5.1 million. That fell far below the $6.5 million package demanded by the players.

Miller instructed members of the association not to sign their contracts until the dispute was settled. When it became obvious that the issue would drag on, the association asked its members to boycott the training camps as well. Most of the name players have complied with the request.

The players' demands centered around increased pension benefits but included improvements in health care and widow benefits, life insurance coverage, disability benefits, severance pay and retirement at age 45.

They also wanted a specific percentage of national television income to be diverted to the pension fund—a request the owners had steadfastly refused to grant.

Club Owners, Players Plan More Talks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK (AP) — Negotiators for major league baseball's players and club owners planned to return to the bargaining table this morning following a marathon Monday night session which failed to produce a settlement of the bitter pension dispute.

"Everybody is just fatigued to continue," said Marvin Miller, executive director of the Players Association, as he emerged from the nine-hour meeting shortly after 3 a.m. EST. Miller reported that "progress is being made but we still have some problems." He said he would meet again with John Catherin, the owners' representative, at 9 a.m., today. Player representatives from the 24 major league clubs were to join the negotiators at 10 a.m.

Miller, obviously tired after the day-and-night meetings, which began at 4 p.m., broke for dinner at 7 p.m. and resumed at 9 p.m., indicated a published report that the dispute had been settled took the negotiators by surprise late Monday night.

The New York Daily News reported that a settlement had been reached in a story by baseball writer Joe Trimble from Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

"We were in the midst of the damndest wrangle you ever saw when we were interrupted by phone to tell us we had reached a settlement," Miller said.

Catherin would not comment on the news story. The owners' negotiator said Miller's statement that there had been progress in the talks but that problems still existed "pretty much sums it up."

"There was some positive progress," Catherin said. Neither he nor Miller would elaborate.

The right combination of wins and losses could bring the hectic Southwest Conference basketball chase to a close tonight.

The league-leading Texas Aggies host Arkansas and second-place Baylor entertain defending champion Texas Christian at Waco.

An A&M victory and Baylor defeat would give the Aggies the title with an 11-1 conference record and two games to play.

The Bears, completing their best season under coach Bill Menefee, have only slight hopes of capturing the crown.

Grubbs said he would attend the Baylor-TCU game and that his assistant, Cliff Speagle, would be at College Station for the Aggie-Arkansas encounter.

Time Around Arkansas

All the record books are tossed away this week, as the 12 Region 4-AA basketball teams gather at Southern State College in Magnolia for the District Tournament.

First-round action begins tomorrow afternoon, with the brackets determined by the divisional standings in the East and West sides. With only 12 teams in the 16-spot bracket, the top two finishers in each division draw first-round byes.

At 8 p.m. tomorrow night the Hope Bobcats get a shot at the 5th place team in the Eastern Division, likely the Smackover Buckaroos. The Bucks had dwindled from a contender early in the season toward the bottom with injuries and the intense competition on the East side.

Should the Bobcats get past the first game, 4-AA East champ Crosscut Looms in the quarterfinals. Last year the Camden Panthers eliminated Hope 64-53 in the opening round, and this time around the cats will again be the underdogs.

Ashdown's Pantherettes won the state Class A senior girls title that everyone conceded to them a year ago when they scored a 47-46 final win over the Hope Lady Cats up at Prescott.

This makes three years in a row that the Pantherettes have made the state finals, and the last two have resulted in victories. Watch out for next year, too, as Coach Helen Parker returns her three forwards, all of whom started for state champs as sophomores and juniors.

Last Saturday night Ashdown had to fight to get it, though, squirming past a determined Salem team 76-71 in overtime.

Bradley, of course, went undefeated for the season and won the Class B crown by demolishing Prattsville 50-35, but the realm of the Bearettes may be nearing its close. By the way, the present Bradley winning streak stands at 58 games, since our Lady Cats stumped them 61-60 here last January.

The state Class A and B Senior Boys Tournaments are being held this week at Barton Coliseum in Little Rock, and both divisions should be wide open.

After following the Mena Bearcats (22-4) through their 7-A Championship last week at Prescott, this writer would have to tab them as favorites along with once-beaten Salem, with possible ratings going to Magnolia, Columbia, Lonoke, and defending champ Green Forest.

Patt at 38-1 is everybody's pick to defend their Class B title, but stern competition could come from some unsung teams like Stamps, Ellis

Nashville Business College No. 1 girl's basketball team in the nation displayed their abilities at winning, by pulling ahead, in the last 5 minutes of the game to a 56 to 53 lead against 4th place Ouachita Monday night at Arkadelphia.

Ouachita was ahead for 3 1/2 quarters and at one time held a lead of 11 points, Pat Ramsey was high pointer for Ouachita with 25 and Smith for Nashville also scored 25. All American White with the Tennessee girls was held to only 16 points.

Wayland Baptist College of Plainview, Texas (rated just below Ouachita at 5th place) will be coming to Arkadelphia Thursday night at 7:30 to play, what looks to be another close and interesting game, with Coach Carolyn Moffatt's Ouachita girls,

HAYES SLIPS SOME BUT STILL LEADS

NEW YORK (AP) — Elvin Hayes slipped slightly in last week's National Basketball Association point-making action but the San Diego Rockets' rookie still clung to his lead to day in the scoring race.

Hayes, through Sunday's games, had poured in 1,937 points in 66 games for an average of 29.3 points per game. The other four scoring leaders increased their averages, but each has a long way to go to keep Hayes from becoming the first rookie to lead the NBA in scoring since Wilt Chamberlain turned the trick in 1959.

Hayes still leads runner-up Bob Rule of Seattle by 284 points as the season heads into its final stages. Rule has 1,653 points and an average of 24.3.

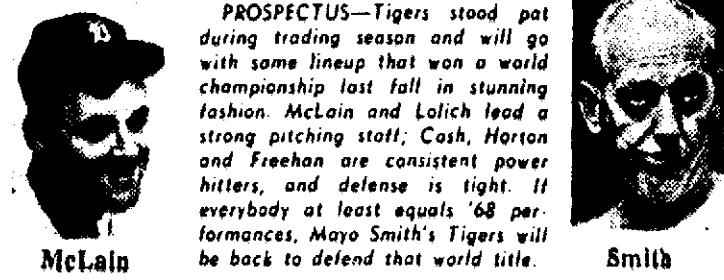

Earl Monroe of Baltimore is No. 3 with 1,648 and 25.4; Oscar Robertson, Cincinnati, No. 4, 1,622 and 25.7, and Billy Cunningham, Philadelphia, No. 5, 1,608 and 24.7.

Chamberlain, of the Los Angeles Lakers, continues to lead in field goal percentage with a .579 average and also remains the top rebounder with 1,383 re-bounces for a 21.0 per game mark.

FORM CHARTS

By MARTY RALBOVSKY, NEA Sports Writer

Detroit, AL East

PITCHING—Denny McLain won 31 last season, but will probably settle for 25 this time around. As long as his arm stays sound, he'll remain tough to beat. Mickey Lolich, after sensational World Series, looks larger than ever. Joe Sparma (10-10) and Earl Wilson (10-13) are better than records indicate. Bulpen is loaded with Roy Face, John Wyatt, Don McMahen and Fred Lasher. Rating: A

CATCHING—Bill Freehan is one of best. He hit .263 last season, slammed 25 homers, drove in 84 runs. Also fine bandler of pitchers. Jim Price is his backup man. Rating: A

INFIELD—Norm Cash, at 36, keeps rolling along. He was great in clutch last season, when he hit .263 and slammed 25 homers. Dick McAuliffe is back at second (he hit 16 homers last season), and Don Wert at third. Tigers lost Ray Oyler in expansion draft, and will fill short with either Dick Traverski or Tom Motschick, both poor batters. Rating: B+

OUTFIELD—Al Kaline had best World Series and finally played on a championship club. He's 35, and giving is at least one more season. Willie Horton (36 homers) and Mickey Stanley round out excellent outfield. Gates Brown and Jim Northrup also figure. Rating: A

ROOKIES TO WATCH—Outfielder Bo Woods and first baseman Joe Pepper, up from Toledo, are power batters who could hit right to

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three more first-round games are on tap today in the senior boys Class B state basketball tournament.

Play took on Biggers-Reyno at 12:30 p.m., Wilson played Ouachita County at 3:30 p.m. and Oak Grove takes on Desha Central at 8 p.m.

Quarterfinals will be played Wednesday and Thursday, semifinals Friday and the final game will be Saturday night.

Stamps Ellis, Prattsburg and County Line advanced to the quarterfinals in play Monday. Ellis whipped Gentry 94-60, Prattsburg downed Kensey 68-58 and County Line dumped St. Charles 75-63.

County Line led all the way in its game and the closest St. Charles could come in the fourth quarter was six points. Roger Hayne and Bob McCoy led County Line with 21 and 19 points, respectively. John Hutchcraft netted 17 for St. Charles.

Ellis jumped off to a 12-0 lead and were never in serious trouble as it defeated Gentry. Robert Ensley led Ellis with 28 points, while Whiningham led Gentry with 18 points.

Prattsburg held a 31-26 half-time lead and went on to defeat Kensey. Lewis Clegg scored 27 points for Prattsburg and W. Eudy hit 18 for Kensey.

Ouachita, which finished second to Henderson in the regular season, advanced to tonight's semifinals with a pulsating 84-82 victory over Harding. Southern State upended Arkansas Tech 99-84 in somewhat of a surprise.

Danny Sheets, who had 30 points for the night, dropped in a 10-foot-jumper with three seconds left to play to give Ouachita its 84-82 lead and ultimate victory.

The game, however, wasn't quite over and Harding nearly pulled into a tie. Harding stopped the clock with two seconds showing and Mike Lamb heaved a long 30-footer at the basket, and it went in. However, the buzzer sounded before Lamb got the shot away.

James Chancellor added 27 points to the Tiger attack. Bob by McKeel led Harding with 23 points and George Frazier added 19 more.

Southern State controlled the boards by a 59-34 margin in rolling over Tech. The Mule-riders led 41-35 at halftime and broke the game open midway in the second half as they spurred to an 11-point lead.

Billy Barnes led the Mule-riders with 22 points, 17 in the second half. Ronnie Tollefson and Barry McMahen each added 18. Paul Brown led Tech with 28 points and John Gross added 23.

Brinkley, which led 40-37 at halftime, lost the lead to Mena in the fourth quarter, then hit a scoring spree late in the final quarter to salvage the victory.

Bob Joshua and Chester Lucas with 18 and 16 points, respectively, led Brinkley. Rick Cole paced Mena with 18 points and Ken Gilliam added 15 more.

Hermitage was 15 points behind in the second quarter but rallied in the last two periods to outscore Manila 45-27 and win the game. Billy Williams hit 35 points for Hermitage. Jimmy Ellis scored 24 points for Manila.

Charleston overcame a 32-28

halftime deficit to take the lead in the third quarter and go on to defeat Harrisburg. Charleston took the lead at 41-40 for the first time in the game with 1:09 left in the third quarter.

Ronnie Teague led Charleston with 28 points and Tommy Rataj scored 14 points for Harrisburg.

Fayell made it 4-0 early in the second, Fayell came in to play goal. But the barrage continued, interrupted only by Guy Gendron's third-period goal for the Flyers.

The Rangers tagged the slumping Bruins with their fourth straight loss, despite the return of defenseman Bobby

Orr, who missed three weeks

Rod Gilbert, Donnie Marshall

and Walt Tkaczuk had two goals apiece and Bob Nevin, Dennis

Hextall and Brad Park added

the others against beleaguered

Johnston, who faced 44 shots at the Boston nets. Three of the goals came within 38 seconds in the third period.

The goals by Hextall and

Park were the first of their NHL careers. Goalie Ed Giacomin,

one of the few around the league who's not thinking about some kind of job action today, picked up his sixth shutout of the season.

chronic offenses."

The study was conducted, between November 1967 and February, and will be presented Thursday at a meeting of the American Academy of Forensic Science in Chicago.White and Negro officers, Mendelsohn said, disagreed only on questions involving race.They were in substantial agreement, he said, on issues limited to police work—the need for more money, the fact that Detroit police did a good job in policing the riot and that looters, not innocent bystanders, were arrested.Among lower echelon white officers, the study says, Negroes are considered a "privileged minority, susceptible to the influence of agitators," who, the white police believe, are capable of galvanizing blacks into violent action even though the Negroes "are 11th-century officers."

The study reveals that the majority of white policemen feel blacks are treated either the same as whites or favored by schools, welfare agencies, stores and law enforcement agencies and in the area of jobs.Housing is the only area where a substantial number of the white patrolmen see discrimination.Nearly 25 per cent of the white officers interviewed said rioters should be shot.

Chronic Loss of Blood
May Be Anemia Cause

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

cause and what is the best treatment?

A—The underlying cause is a failure of the bone marrow to produce red blood cells as fast as they wear out. A search must be made for the precipitating cause—exposure to ionizing radiation or various chemical agents, such as nitrogen mustard, chlorambucil, urethane, busulfan, benzol, mercaptopurine, chloramphenicol, gold salts, insecticides, trinitrotoluene (TNT), to name but a few. Often no such cause can be found.

(Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

Q—I am a housewife. My hemoglobin level varies from 9 to 11. In addition to treatment for this, I am taking Indocin for my arthritis. Could this drug cause my low hemoglobin?

A—Indocin, like aspirin, may cause bleeding from the digestive tract and thus lower your hemoglobin level, which for women should be between 12 and 16.

Q—What foods are good for anemia? Is it true that port wine is good for anemia?

A—For most types of anemia, foods rich in iron are beneficial. These include liver, oysters, red meat, spinach and other greens, and enriched breads and cereals. Alcoholic beverages are of no special value in the treat of anemia.

Q—What is pernicious anemia? Is there any cure for it?

A—This disease of unknown cause is insidious in its onset. It is characterized by weakness, soreness of the tongue and numbness or tingling in the fingers. There is not only a low hemoglobin level and a low red blood cell count but also typical abnormalities can be seen in the microscopic examination of the red cells. The disease cannot be cured but it can be controlled by taking vitamin B-12. It is essential that this treatment be continued without interruption for life.

Q—Would a person taking vitamin B-12 for pernicious anemia for a long time be likely to develop liver trouble?

A—No.

Q—My mother has aplastic anemia. What is the ture of the intelligence ship last year and the detention of its crew.

Court proceedings enter their sixth week today.

Before the court adjourned for the Washington's birthday weekend, the Navy counsel, Capt. William Newsome, said he would continue quizzing the men about the U.S. Code of Conduct for prisoners.

Newsome had said before the court started that he felt the code was not applicable because Pueblo crewmen were not technically prisoners of war.

Some of the crew have testified they were uncertain during their imprisonment whether the code was applicable to what they considered their "unique situation."

Bill Would Give Judges Pay Increases

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state's supreme, circuit and chancery court judges would be granted hefty pay increases under an amendment to the state constitutional and fiscal agencies appropriation bill adopted by the Arkansas Senate Monday.

The House spent considerable time in a parliamentary hassle during action on the administration's proposal to double the tax on a 32-gallon barrel of beer and also rejected a city annexation bill.

Both houses returned to work at 1 p.m. today and chances were good that the administration's local option mixed-drink bill would be voted on in each chamber.

Today is the last day on the notice of reconsideration given by Rep. Leon Holsted of Little Rock last Thursday when the mixed-drink proposal fell 40-56 in the House.

The Senate also attached amendments to the appropriation bill to increase salaries in the budgets of the state auditor and treasurer.

The recommended pay increases in judges' salaries proposed by Sen. Guy H. Jones of Conway was adopted by a 20-10 vote.

The amendment would increase the salary of the chief justice of the state Supreme Court from $22,500 to $30,000 annually, for associate justices from $20,000 to $27,500 and for circuit and chancery judges from $18,000 to $22,500.

Sen. Robert Harvey of Swiftton said the upper chamber was "opening the gates" to further salary increases.

"I don't know where the money is going to come from," Harvey said. "If we don't hold the line here, I don't know where we're going to hold it."

Virtual chaos existed in the House for about 30 minutes during an attempt to amend the administration's bill that would raise the tax on beer from $5 to $10 a barrel.

The measure came to a vote and was defeated 45-37, with 75 votes needed for passage.

However, a motion to expunge the record by which the bill failed triggered off the parliamentary hassle. It took two votes on separate expunge motions before the vote was erased. The first one failed 66-22, but the second was adopted, 67-19 — the number needed.

Rep. John Bethell of Des Arc wanted to amend the bill to lower the tax from $10 to $7.50. However, the amendment was not prepared and no action was taken on it.

Doctors Say Eisenhower Doing Fine

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is convalescing "very smoothly" from abdominal surgery that his doctors now say probably saved him from certain death.

The doctors at Walter Reed General Hospital said, however, that the 78-year-old five-star general "will have to be watched especially carefully during the next two weeks" for any complications.

They added that only "time will tell" how much strain Sunday's emergency surgery put on a heart that has weathered seven major attacks.

This was the sum of two medical bulletins, plus answers to written questions by newsmen issued at the hospital Monday.

The Army medical team disclosed for the first time that the obstruction within his small intestine was so great there was clear danger the bowel would rupture.

This "would itself have been lethal," they said.

Such a rupture would have released poisonous bacteria into the abdominal cavity.

It was in their formal medical bulletin at 5:25 p.m. Monday that the doctors said Eisenhower's post-operative convalescence was continuing "very smoothly" so far.

They also said he "is now taking small sips of water" — apparently his only ordinary intake besides intravenous feeding.

The doctors further reported Eisenhower "is resting reasonably comfortably."

The latter statement — qualifying the degree of comfort — apparently indicated that, aside from the ordinary discomfort immediately following any type of surgery.

IT PAYS TO BE "LAZY"

Dear Helen: This article appeared in the teen section of our local Beavercreek News, Dayton, Ohio. Seems natural for reprint in your YAFI.

GOT TROUBLES? TRY BEING A LITTLE MORE "LAZY"

Many teen-agers today are condemned as "lazy", and are rightfully referred to as such. Beaver-creek High School has made a study of the issue, and on the basis of the facts which are available to us, we hereby publish this report on the characteristics of the "lazy" teen-ager:

1. The lazy teen-ager will stay in school and graduate because he is sure that is easier than scraping out the low income life facing 70 percent of today's high school drop-outs.

2. The lazy teen-ager will willingly obey traffic laws and drive safely because he feels that is easier than going to traffic court, paying a fine, or living with the deaths of innocent people on his conscience.

3. The lazy teen-ager will seek books, plays and other cultural material. He will seek and discuß new ideas because doing this is easier than feeling emarrassed over the discovery of his own ignorance.

4. The lazy teen-ager will esablish and aspire to high goals in life, because he feels this is easier than living second-rate.

5. The lazy teen-ager will form a personal code of behavior which dictates a mature attitude toward sex, because he realizes that is

sex, because he realizes that is easier than fighting out of a jam.

6. The lazy teen-ager will take an active interest in local civic and church affairs, making it a lifelong habit.

Miss Hepburn Gets 11th Nomination

By GENE HANDSAKER
Associated Press Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Katharine Hepburn has scored another acting triumph by winning her 11th Oscar nomination, a record in movie academy annals.

The 59-year-old, two-time winner ("Morning Glory," 1932; "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner," last year) is up for "The Lion in Winter" in nominations announced Monday for the 41st annual awards.

Miss Hepburn was nominated for her performance as Eleanor of Aquitaine, wife of Peter O'Toole's King Henry II, in the historical movie set in England in the 1180s.

"The Lion in Winter" received seven nominations in various categories, including best picture. Others listed for best film of 1968 — were "Oliver!", which led with 11 nominations; "Funny Girl," which received 8; "Romeo and Juliet," 4, and "Rachel, Rachel," 4.

A surprise to forecasters was the lack of a nomination for Paul Newman for directing his wife Joanne Woodward in "Rachel, Rachel," Miss Woodward's performance was nominated for best actress.

Nominees for the statuettes which the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences will award April 14 in nationally televised ceremonies include:

Best performance by an actor in a starring role: Alan Arkin in "The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter"; Alan Bates, "The Fixer"; Ron Moody, "Oliver!"; Peter O'Toole, "The Lion in Winter"; Cliff Robertson, "Charly."

Best performance by an actress in a starring role: Miss Hepburn; Miss Woodward; Patricia Neal, "The Subject Was Roses"; Vanessa Redgrave, "Isadora"; Barbra Streisand, "Funny Girl."

Miss Hepburn's 11th nomination puts her one up on Bette Davis. Four actresses, however, have two Oscars apiece — Miss Hepburn, Miss Davis, Elizabeth Taylor and the late Vivien Leigh.

Actors in supporting roles: Jack Albertson, "The Subject Was Roses"; Seymour Cassel, "Faces"; Daniel Massey as Noel Coward in "Star!"; Jack Wild as the Artful Dodger of "Oliver!" and Gene Wilder, "The Producers."

Supporting-actress nominees: Lynn Carlin in "Faces"; Ruth Gordon, "Rosemary's Baby"; Sonora Locke, "The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter"; Kay Medford, "Funny Girl"; Estelle Parsons, "Rachel, Rachel."

Definite authorship of the Epistle to the Hebrews in the New Testament is unknown. It has been credited to Barnabas, Apollo and the Apostle Paul.

Too Many Chiefs,
Not Enough Indians;
The Tax Program

With the scheduled adjournment of the General Assembly only two weeks away, March 13, the pre-session prediction of a legislative friend stands up: Instead of the 90 millions a year in new or increased taxes requested by Gov. Rockefeller the state is likely to settle for 30 millions or less.

Background events bearing on the current session have inevitably produced among the voters and taxpayers a latent hostility to any tax increase whatever. For one thing, the tax-spending lobbies have been in collision with each other and self-defeating.

Little Rock's big and expensive lobby effort managed to get a declaration favoring the merging of the University of Arkansas and privately-supported Little Rock University - but it was an empty victory, with no funds to carry it out, and greatly damaging the prospect of raising taxes to provide such funds.

The school lobby efforts in the legislature border on the ridiculous. A session ago Arkansas State College at Jonesboro managed to gain university status in name only, without additional funds, giving rise to the suspicion that Little Rock helped Jonesboro then in return for support of the UA-LRU merger in the current session.

"Me Too" became the order of the day in 1969. Henderson State at Arkadelphia wangled passage of a bill for university status, and similar plans were readied for Conway's Arkansas State and Monticello's A&M. But Gov. Rockefeller promptly vetoed the Henderson enactment and promised the same for the Conway and Monticello ventures should they reach his desk.

This is a sorry performance by the political backers of so-called higher education - quarreling over empty titles while killing off tax legislation that would help education generally.

Never was the professional educators' adage better illustrated: The trouble with the schools is, there are too many Chiefs and not enough Indians.

Your editor and his newspaper believe in generous support of public education - but with honesty and justice in distributing the tax burden.

For instance, we won't allow any basic change in the sales tax law until the basic structure of other taxes has been reformed and brought up to date. Lobbies working upon the legislature have repeatedly gone back to the sales tax when new revenue was needed - but they have constantly protected other forms of taxation against change.

Lobbies in the current session of the General Assembly have made a great outcry against exemptions which have stood ever since the sales tax was enacted in 1935. But in general these exemptions simply mean that in certain areas the final consumer is spared an additional burden. That is to say, he pays sales tax on commodities, but not on services. Lobbyists call it "exemption" - but to you it removal simply means additional taxes at the consumer level.

My contention is that instead of debating sales tax "exemptions" the legislature ought to be studying real exemptions in other levies which create a tax picture entirely unfair to middle-income and lower-income citizens.

Last month I checked with the Hempstead county tax assessor's office and found that the average assessment of timberlands hasn't changed much since the 1929-33 depression - it's still about $6 an acre. And yet the newsprint (paper) which The Star buys, manufactured from pine pulpwood, has gone from a depression price of $41 a ton to $147 today. Everyone is collecting in these prosperous times - except the tax collector.

The sales tax has been increased in either coverage or rate twice since 1935 but the state income and corporation taxes have remained constant. I repeat: The sales tax in 1969 is untouchable, under the threat of a state-wide referendum. It's time to revise other levies - that haven't been touched in a generation.

Death Date Diaries Are Introduced

By HARRY F. ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Despite Sirhan Bishara Sirhan's strong objections, his three "death date" diaries are before the jury trying him for Robert F. Kennedy's assassination.

As Police Sgt. William E. Brandt testified Monday about finding the notebooks in Sirhan's bedroom, the young Jordanian suddenly rose half out of his chair and argued vehemently with his attorneys.

"Your honor, my client asks for a recess," said Grant B. Cooper, one of Sirhan's defenders. Court was adjourned early and Brandt continues today.

Sirhan is charged with first-degree murder in the June 5, 1968 death of Sen. Kennedy - slain as he left a celebration of his California Democratic Presidential primary victory.

Major Sam Yorty revealed the existence of the diaries soon after the shooting Sirhan had written, Yorty said, "of the necessity of killing Sen. Kennedy before June 5, 1968." That date was the first anniversary of the Arab-Israeli war.

Others have said the notebooks are filled with inscription after inscription vowing death for the New York senator who had supported more U.S. military aid for Israel.

Cooper had argued that the notebooks were seized illegally without a search warrant and without permission of the defendant.

He made the objection in various ways a half dozen times but Sgt. Brandt was in the witness chair.

Brandt said he and other officers were let into the Sirhan home by the defendant's brothers Adel and Munir.

Fragments of the bullet that killed Kennedy and photographs taken of his head wounds after death were introduced into evidence Monday.

Dr. Henry M. Cuneo, a neurological surgeon at Good Samaritan Hospital, told of examining the senator, operating on his brain, then remaining with him until he was pronounced dead at 1:44 a.m. June 6.

Sterilization Has Been Practiced in Several States for Many Years

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hundreds of mentally ill Americans have been subjected to involuntary sterilization in recent years in six states whose laws on the subject may be affected by a Supreme Court review.

Indiana, one of the six, sterilized 706 males and 870 females from 1936 to 1962.

In California, sterilizations totaled 21 in 1962; 19 in 1963; 16 in 1964; 4 in 1965; 19 in 1966; 10 in 1967; 7 in 1968.

The Supreme Court agreed Monday to grant a hearing to a Nebraska woman who challenged the right of state officials to have her sterilized. She was Gloria Cavit, 37, of Grand Island, who has had eight children in 14 years.

Nebraska law, which applies only to inmates of the Beatrice State Home for the Feeble-minded, provides that sterilization may be imposed by a board of examiners as a condition for parole or discharge. Mrs. Cavit is an inmate at the home.

In 1964, 1965 and 1966, Nebraska sterilized 11 males and 16 females.

In California, the medical director of a state hospital can order the sterilization of any mentally retarded or mentally ill pa-

Reprisals for Cong Attacks Considered

WASHINGTON (AP) - The State Department indicates any U.S. reprisals against North Vietnam because of bombardment of South Vietnamese cities would depend on how long the enemy attacks continue.

Press officer Carl Barth said the assaults "clearly raises a question as to the other side's desire to work toward a peaceful settlement of the conflict."

But he stopped short of charging the attacks on southern population centers violated an "understanding" under which the United States stopped bombing of the North while the enemy halted attacks on southern cities and violations of the demilitarized zone.

Barth refused to go any further, except to say the United States is conducting a "continuing and careful review" of the "understanding."

The South Vietnamese ambassador to the United States, Du Diem, also said the enemy's tactics in the next few days would be important in determining whether the allies would retaliate.

"If the enemy attacks and attacks, do we accept it indefinitely?" he asked. "If they stop their attacks now with the shelling and scattered ground action, the reaction would likely be to give them a serious warning about the future of our talks."

"But if the shelling go on, I think the reaction would be quite different."

Diem did not say what form any retaliation would take, although he hinted quick raids such as used by Israel against Arab targets might be considered.

Military officers at the Pentagon also were skeptical any retaliatory action would be taken if the cities' shelling tapers off, as they expect it will.

Violations of the DMZ and shelling of population centers were supposed to have been banned under the "understanding" the United States had in entering peace talks with Hanoi at Paris.

Over the weekend, however, the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong launched a coordinated series of wide-ranging fire attacks at more than 100 locations in Vietnam including scores of cities and towns.

The attacks against cities have continued, although decreasing in intensity the last two days.

The past violations particularly DMZ incidents, generally have been tolerated by the United States and no retaliatory actions have resulted.

Insurance Regulation Is Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) - Arkansas Insurance Commissioner Alan W. Horne says federal and state authorities should combine forces to regulate the insurance industry.

Horne made the statement Monday while appearing before the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Monopoly, which has reopened its auto insurance hearings.

Horne said that 16 Arkansas-based insurance companies have collapsed since 1960 and that 10 of those were primarily in the auto insurance business.

He said losses on unpaid claims for four of the firms exceeded $4 million and that, as a result, there is no longer an auto liability insurance industry of any significance in the state.

"For liability insurance, citizens of Arkansas are almost totally dependent upon companies domiciled in other states whose solvency is, in turn, primarily dependent on the vigilance of the insurance regulators of such other states," Horne said.

"Asset juggling and fraudulent securities may take as many forms as the ingenuity of the entrepreneur is capable," he said.

Horne said he was in favor of a federal guaranty fund in principle. Under such a fund claims could be paid when a company goes into receivership.

One Per Cent Surtax Bill Introduced

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - A bill that would levy a one per cent state surtax on the federal income tax paid by Arkansas firms and persons was introduced in the Arkansas Senate Monday by Sen. W. D. Moore of El Dorado.

Revenue from the surtax would be earmarked for cities and counties.

The state Revenue Department would collect the money and turn it back to the cities and counties. Moore said his attorney had said the bill was constitutional.

Sens. W. K. Ingram of West Memphis and Clarence Bell of Parkin introduced a bill to permit the city of West Memphis to levy a motor vehicle tax on out-of-state motorists who use the city's streets more than four times a year.

The bill was in reaction to a similar motor vehicle tax levied in Memphis.

Ingram said Memphis announced it planned to enforce a levy of $10 on out-of-state vehicles that use Memphis streets more than four times a year.

Ingram said Memphis' action against West Memphis motorists.

Moore said the bill was introduced as he set hearings for March 5.

"We want to take a look at the whole thing," the Arkansas Democrat said.
